In the communities we serve, young people experience poverty and three times the adversity of their peers. Beyond the instability and insecurity that makes it difficult to meet their most basic needs, these youth experience social, emotional, and cognitive obstacles that bar them from living the joyful, purposeful life that every young person deserves. At New Pathways for Youth, we are changing that. We are building a future where every young person can live their life with joy and purpose, confident in their ability to decide their own path. To make it happen, we provide one on one mentoring with a dedicated adult and a proven program for personal growth, including tailored goal setting and connection to vital resources, all within a supportive peer group. In doing so, we are transforming the lives of youth by providing the support, stability, and skills they and their families need to flourish. Our holistic, research based program is proven to generate remarkable outcomes for the youth we serve, from improved mental health and personal wellness to academic success and greater high school graduation rates. We give them the tools and resources to not only achieve safe, healthy lives, but find fulfilling career paths, seize new opportunities, and enhance their relationship with their families, peers, and all those around them. What sets us apart, Level Up is research based. 82 percent of our youth this year graduate from high school or on their path to graduate. 80 percent go on to continued education and training. 75 percent of which are of the generation in their family to do so. Each year, an independent research firm surveys our youth and mentors.
