

Demographics

Gender

Rating of Program Experience

Youth rated their experience as a 4.7/6 with 93% rating it as 4+.

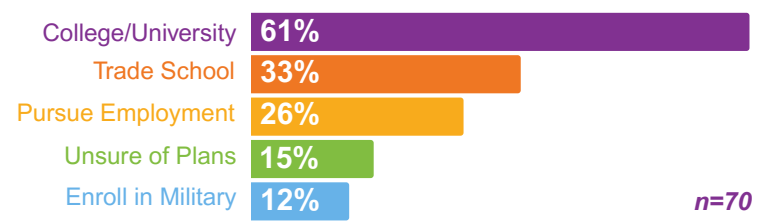

Strengths of NPFY:

- Supportive Mentors & Staff
- Community & Sense of Belonging
- Personal Growth & Development
- Learning Opportunities & Fun Experiences

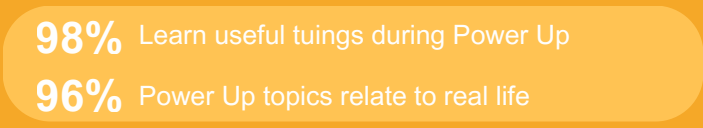

Post-Secondary Aspirations

Aspirations for Youth in High School

Power Ups

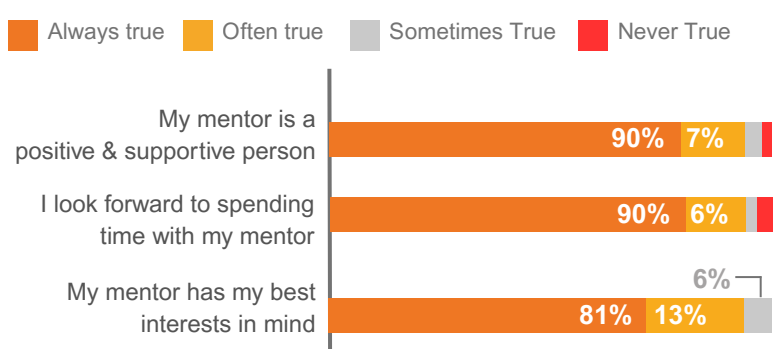

Youth strongly agree or agree with the following

- Learning & Personal Growth
- Engaging Activities
- Supportive Environment
- New Perspectives

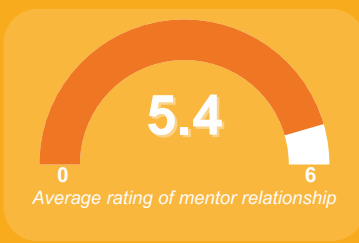

Youth & Mentor Relationships

Responses reflected strong and positive mentor relationships.

Rating of Mentorship Experience

Youth rated mentor relationship quality on a 0–6 scale (0=Very Low, 6=Very High), averaging 5.4, with 84% giving a 5 or 6.

Youth Perspective on Mentors

Youth were asked to share what they liked best about working with their mentor. 100 participant responses highlight how mentors drive youth growth across academic, emotional, and social domains.

- Shared Activities
- Reliable Support & Presence
- Guidance, Advice, & Problem-Solving
- Personal Growth, Independence, & Goal Setting
- Emotional Safety, Understanding, & Being Heard

Risk Factors

The pre survey asked youth to respond to the question based on the past 30 days or the last 12 months. The post survey asked the youth to respond based on their experiences since January 2026.

- Youth Exposure to Community Violence Exposure to community violence has decreased by 9%. Physical fighting decreased by 19% since joining Level Up.
- Youth Depression Rates Rates of depression decreased by 19% since they joined Level Up.

Protective Factors

Youth improved across all areas, with statistically significant gains in five of six subscales: Decision Making, Academic Behaviors, Conflict Resolution, Household Functioning, and Resource Utilization.

Highest Improvement Areas

- Decision Making
- Academic Behavior
- Conflict Resolution

